The Bulletins

Norwich, Monday, Dec. 26, 1961.

THE WEATHER,

Winds off Atlantic coast— North of Sandy Fook and Sandy Book fresh to strong northerly over-cast, thick weather, probably rain some Pressure was high Sunday over prac Pressure was high Sunday over practically all sections east of the Rocky Mountains, while a disturbance of marked intensity and wide extent moved intensity and wide extent moved intensity and precipitation went of the Rocky Mourtains and gales along the martisern California coast, San Francisco reporting a maximum wind velocity of extry miles an hour from the southmast.

Rain has fallen also within the last 24 hours in the middle Atlantic states and rain and snow in southern New England. The temperature was considerably lower Sunday in the Atlantic states Indications are for generally fair weather, but with considerable cloudiness Monday and Tussday in the state east of the Missisriver. The temperature will rise at generally east of the Mississip-

Northern New England-Pair Monday and Tuesday: with slowly riging temfair Monday and Tuesday; rising tem-perature Tuesday.

Observations in Norwich. The Bulletin's thervations show the following changes in temperature and the harometric changes Saturday and 24 30.26 22 30.30 20 30.40 Highest 24, lowest 26, Comparisons. Predictions for Saturday: Snow Saturday's weather: Cloudy followed

Predictions for Sunday: Clearing and Sunday's weather: Cloudy, much cold-

SUN, MOON AND TIDES, | High | Moon Sun || Water. || Rises. a. m. | p. m.

Bix hours after high water it is low water, which is followed by flood tide.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McNamara of Harriford were holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Yerrington.

This (Monday) afternoon in Parish hall the Army and Navy five will meet the Ashland team of Jewett City. A very fast game of basketball is to be expected both teams are running at a fast clip. Edward Pollard of Boston is visiting his brother on Front street.

his home over the holidays. Murphy is at his home for the holf-

Affred Norman of the U. S. N. at his home on Merchants avenus.

Charles McSheffery of Lowell is visiting his parents on South Front street.

P. Erfbeck is visiting his parents for the holidays.

MIG TRUCK TO DELIVER BELATED XMAS PACKAGES

Hundreds of helated Christmas pack-ages which arrived at the Norwich post; office Saturday night too late for de-livery in time for Christmas Day will be delivered this (Monday) morning Dur-ing the day $90 sacks of mail arrived at the office, making a recard day for incoming mail for the local postal au-packages. The carriers were only able to make two trips as the heavy mail saused considerable delay in getting miarted for the morning delivery. Every Package letter and card that arrived in time was delivered Saturday.

The Six trails Saturday assets as the sause of the sause

The 855 train Saturday evening arresult was that a big consignment of street owned and occupied by John J. mail sacks was dumped into the of- flow about $30 o'clock on top of other mail which arrived in the late after moon. The overworked postal employ- lower tenement is occupied by William Stetson. and sections and getting it ready for BAD CHIMNEY FIRE AT

Early this (Monday) morning a big auto truck with three extra men will At 11.10 o'clock Sunday morning the leave the office with its first load and fire department was called out by tel. was a morning as the post office will be run on holiday schedule today.

Washington street. Twelve gallons of was a morning as the post office will be run on holiday schedule today.

Washington street. Twelve gallons of vent.

Main street company and deputy chief service.

REV. M. M'LEAN GOLDIE

GOING TO MARYLAND Rev. M. McLean Goldie preached his farowell sermon Sunday at Grace Episcopal church, Yantic. Rev. Mr. Goldie has been pastor of the church for the past eight years with the exception of a brief period when he was located in

He terminates his pastorate here to socept a pastorate in Earlville, Mr.

in the British Isles are women,

The recent census figures show that

BURGLARS GET TWENTY TWO TIRES AT WEST TOWN STREET GARAGE

Some time during the early morning hours Saturday burglars broke into the auto accessory store at No. 151 West Town street, Norwich Town conducted by David E. Shahan, and carted away 22 Firestone tires and about 366 feet of brake lining.

It is thought that the burglars gained entrance to the place through a rear window. Tracks were found in the rear of the building and tracks left by automade good their escape, leaving no clues except the tracks of the machine, which they backed up to the store does.

The break was discovered Saturday of the break.

The break was discovered Saturday of the break.

The spoke of the custom in many of the European churches, especially the Roman Catholic churches, of symbolizing the adoration of Christ with the manger and the images of the Infant and the Magi.

The musical part of the service was devoted entirely to the old carols, the old familiar Christmas lays being sung by the choir and the Sunday school Presents to each member of the Sunday school were given out from the pile at the base of the tree, and each member of the Sunday school received a box of Christmas candy as well. There were

CHANDLER N. WAYLAND HEARING | HOLIDAY PROGRAMME

CONTINUED TO THURSDAY NEXT A New York paper of Friday said:
The hearings to determine the competency of Chandler N. Wayland, wealthy New Yorker, proceedings for which were requested last month by his son, John anatorium in Riverdale, where William Coffey, his attorney, had him removed m Rellevue hospital two weeks ago Dr. Fluvius Packard, director of the sanaorium, refused to discuss Mr. Wayland's ondition yesterday.

condition yesterday.

A person close to the Wayland family, who would not let his name be published, said yesterd y that Dr. Menas S. Gregory, head of the psychopathic ward at Bellevue hospital, and his assistant, Ir. Thornton, were among the witnesses to be called by the Wayland son. Neither physician would comment upon this statement but it was learned that Dr. Gregory has made a report to the court officials who ordered the hearings that in the statement of the statement of the court officials who ordered the hearings that in the statement of the court of the c as opinion Mr. Wayland is not compe

Chandler N. Wayland, who is $1 years of age, was summoned before Magistrate by the rector, Rev. M. H. May, who narrated his experience when, at the close of a bleak day in December, with traveling companions, he had the great privilege of journeying along a way sacred and historic. Father May described and historic father when all things were ready, the Son of God became man, coming to earth in the form of a tender infant. All things were prepared—the communion with a birch rector, Rev. F. C. Williams, was held at 10.30 o'clock. In his Christians address the rector said in part:

In the fulness of time, when all things were ready, the Son of God became man, coming to earth in the form of a tender infant. All things were prepared—the dominion of Rome—and there was a widespread longing for the desire of all widespread longing for t

At the band charges are specially as the control of dress, Rev. Charles Smith; I Know Sump'n, Alfred Beauregard; Christmas Presents, Gladys Carlson, Lewis Mell; anthem, choir; Why We Celebrate, Fred Filligar; The First Christmas Gift, Julius Maines; Merry Bells, George Phillips Maines; Merry Bells, George Phillips Additional Christmas and Convincing eloquence.

The celebration of the great feast day began with high mass 45,30 o'clock sung by Father May. At 7,39 low mass was read by Rev. Myles F. Galvin, who gave to a most helpful and inspiring sermon on a christmas. At 9 another low mass conductions are considered to the convenience.

lus Maines; Merry Bells, George Phil-lips; Why I Love Christmas, Clifford Maines; When a Feller Needs a Friend, Morton Maines; Eisthdan Clifford by a large congregation who heard Fa-ther May preach The large the congregation of the congregation Morton Maines; Birthday Gifts, Frances Filligar; collection; recitation, Cufford Mell; The Call of America, Mabel Beauregard, Etta Weeks, Priscilla Krodel; song, Miss Annie Heller's class; Wishes, Huth Allen, Alma Boutilier, Edna Lawton, Etta Weeks, Helen Towers, May-belle Towers, Theodore Benson, Miss Hedler and Miss Topliff's classes, song; Love's Messengers, Grace Johnson, Vera Johnson, Hilda Banker, Elizabeth Nel-

During the evening seven members o hool were presented with gifts for attendance during 1921; Catherine Nelson, James Nelson, George Nelson, Alma Boultler, Frances Filligar, Fred Filligar, John Banker. Excellent music was rendered by the junior choir under the direction of H. R. Bushnell. Mrs. C. W. Perkins and Miss Cora L. Tarbox were in charge of the evening's used for the near east fund.

' John Macht took the part of Santa Claus, adding to the pleasure of the members of the school. W. G. Frohman-der, assisted by the members of his Sun-Hatra craws in addition to the regular day school class, gave Santa Claus help mail carriers were old all day delivering in the distribution of the presents.

West Main street chemical company and the deputy chief responded to a tel-ephone call for a small fire at No. 3 Peck

WASHINGTON ST. RESIDENCE ephone for a bad chimney fire at the residence of Mrs. C. E. Prentice, No. 185 responded to the call.

Cigars For Firemen and Post Office Employes.

The fire department were remembered with a Christmas gift of a box of cigars by James J. Madden of Madden's cigars store Saturday evening. Mr. Madden also presented a box of cigars to the post office force Saturday evening. Has Resigned Position, Frank S. Galligan for the past 15 out of every ten centenarians signed. Mr. Galliup Co., has result of every ten centenarians signed. Mr. Galligan has made no definite plans for the future.

AT BOZRAH SCHOOL Dec. 22, Christmas eerxcises were ob-served at the Bozrah Center school, Boz-rah, teacher, Miss Blanche V. Smith. The following programme was rendered: Mu-New Yorker, proceedings for which were requested last month by his son, John Elton Wayland, were continued yesterday before Referee Thomas Keogh in the offices of Jerome, Rand & Kresl, attorneys for the elder Wayland, at 37 Wall street. The hearing was private, but one of those present said that a real estate operator named Robertson of Stonington and two colored maids in the house of the elder Wayland at that place testified in Krinashevsky, Raymond Chapman; recitation, Christmas morning service, the rector, Rev. Richard R. Graham took as his text, Luke 2: 10-11. In his sermon Fev. Mr. Graham said:

The hearing was private, but one of the church Isac Berkman; recitation, The Strike at Santa Claus' Shop, Martha Berkman, Doris Grandy; music, song, Dairy Maids, only-hegotton Son of God. The church also asserts that all those ideas of kindand two colored maids in the house of the elder Wayland at that place testified in support of the son's contention that his father is of unsound mind and unable to manage his own affairs. Robertson, it is said, told of Mr. Wayland's giving away numerous parcels of land to various persons in the locality, and one of the makis declared that her employer had given money away freely to his servants, and that he had been seen wearing a veil while riding in his automobile.

The hearing of witnesses for the younger Wayland will be continued next Thursday, and later on testimony for the father will be given. In the meantime Mr. Wayland is a patient at the Riverdale sanatorium in Riverdale, where William

CHRISTMAS EVE ILLUMINATION

AT HOME OF MRS. W. H. PALMER Three separate groups of carol singers visited Elm Hiu, the sightly home of Mrs. William H. Palmer, on Washington street. Christmas eve, and a number of automobile parties stopped to admire the hrilliantly illuminated mansion. Over half a hundred candles glowed in the front windows from foundation to dome, and with the electric lights on plazzas, baleony and in the porte-cochere the effect was strikingly picturesque.

In the Christmas carols, and we welcome them by our side, while we our selves give fullest meaning to that an cient hymn of the church, "Come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant, Come, let us afore Him, Christ the Lord."

WE HAVE ACCESS TO GOD

THROUGH THE HOLY CHILD

At St. Andrew's Episcopal church, on Central avenue the vested choir led the

CHILD IN SONG AND SERMON

ther May preach. The junior choir sang the soloists being Mary Wenzel, Margaret Suillvan, Virginia Haggerty, Veronica Haggerty, Vera MacInnis, Orchestra members were Rose Driscoll, Louise Nadwiney and Anna Mahoney. Helen Dougherty was organist. con and Father May sub-deacon. As noted, Father May delivered the sermon. Lang's orchestra of seven pieces supplemented the organ, a program of unusual excellence having been arranged by Organist Frank L. Farrell, the solo'sis between the control of the contro ing Mrs. Frank L. Farrell, Mrs. D. Ryan, Miss Loretta Bellefleur, Frank G. Aubrey, Daniel Gleason, John F. Doyle.

An innovation was the singing of Venite Adoremus! (Come, Let Us Adore Him) by a chorus of fresh young volces from the junior and mission choirs, the singers stationed at the extreme end of The offering for the evening will be paniment, the effect being that of a procession of singers in some ancient cloister during a midnight mass, the various movements of the majestic composition ending with a grand chorus, smooth, volminous and even. Equally pleasing was which served as a recessional. The cathedral-like proportions of St. Patrick's lend themselves admirably to a service of majesty and grandeur like this, and the entire mass was magnificent in its sweep and beauty, appealing to soul and sight and sense.

The sanctuary decorations were of tree palms, with altar adornment of poinsettias and delicately tinted roses and car-nations in tail gilt decorative vases. At the geopel side of the altar was represented the manger of Bethlehem; the offerings made here to go to the poor. The arrangement of the decorations as usual was in charge of Sider M. Caralo usual was in charge of Sister M. Carola of the parish convent, for years a teacher in the school and especially skilled in decorating these beautiful altars; she was aided by other Sisters from the con-

Because of the length of the morning services, afternoon vespers and Sunday school wer comitted.

FESTIVAL XMAS EVE

CHRIST CHURCH SCHOOL

The annual Christmas eve exercises of the Christ church Sunday school were held at the church Saturday afternoon with the rector, Rev. Richard R. Gra-ham, in charge of the service. The church was decorated for the occasi with Christmas greens and each of the ing the processional and recessional, the candles being placed on the communion decorative scheme was the large and decorative scheme was the large and private masses. The attendance was un handsomely decorated Christmas tree which had been placed in front of the al-tar. The tree was brilliant with tinsel, electric lights of various colors, and the conventional Christmas tree decorations,

Rev. Mr. Graham, in his address, told of his Christmas of a year ago, when he attended the services in the little American church in Nice in the south of France. He spoke of the custom in many also presents for teachers of the various Sunday school classes and officers of the Sunday school. The presents were distributed by Mr. Graham, Walter B. Crooks and Williams R. Clark, superintendent of the Sunday school.

Christmas Day Sermen.

At the Christmas morning service, the rector, Rev. Richard R. Graham took as his text, Luke 2: 10-11. In his sermon to come to the manger bed, but they do not present their offerings to the Child who lies therein; they join, it may be in the Christmas carols, and we wel-

Central avenue, the vested choir led the Christmas music which included While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks by Night, The First Neel, Silent Night, O. Little Town of Bethlehem, and It Came Upon the Midnight Clear. The service thought that He was angry. His love is shown in the gift of His Son.

An evening prayer and carol service was held at 4 o'clock. The church was beautifully decorated with evergreens and other Christmas decorations. chancel lights were used at this service for the first time. Christmas books were Solemn high mass a ti0.30 was sung by Ibbetson and Mies Mary Proitell. At mid-father Mooney, with Father Galvin deavice, after which the members of the choir went through the streets singing

CAROL SERVICE AT TRINITY EPISCOPAL CHURCH

On earth peace, good will toward men, was the subject of the Christmas sermon delivered by Rev. J. Eldred Brown, rec for, at the Sunday morning service Prinity Episcopal church. The text was Luke 2: 14.

In part Rev. Mr. Brown said: To the Christian believer the joy of this day is a holy joy. And that because to the Christian believer the day stands for the fact that there is nothing in God which may not come into close and permanent union with man. This fact of the Incar-nation, this birth of the Son of God into the final rendering of the ancient hymn of the church, Adeste Fideles, sung following benediction of the blessed sacrament and existence. For in that rude cradle given by Father Mooney. Senior and in Bethlehem was contained in germ no junior choirs combined for this number. only the fulfillment of the angelic song of "Peace on earth, good will toward men." out the whole earthly life of Christ, His whole gospel; yes, the whole magnificent history of Christianity down to this day, and even to the end of the world. Try for a moment to picture to your-selves what that has meant to the world

-what a broad river of benevolence ha flowed from it to all parts of the earth; what it has meant for the sinner, the sufferer, for women and children; for all those unfortunates whom the heathen world has always negelected or killed off; for the darkness of heathenism, the cruelties of barbarism, the prisoner and the nuteral. The truth was emphasized. the outcast. The truth was emphasized by the preacher that the peace and good will of the gospel can come only to those who obey God's moral law, whether individuals, groups or nations. Selfishness, greed, lust for wealth or power is a breeder of ill will and unrest wherever it is found. Class selfishness and national selfishness are as blameworthy as in dividual selfishness, and far more disas-

The speaker closed with a reference the happy promises of future peace, as foreshadowed by the Washington ence and the probability of Ireland's ratification of the pending treaty. At 4 o'clock in the afternoon a caro service was held in the church.

GIFT OF $2,000 FOR

NEW ST. MARY'S CHURCH Christmas day was observed at St. Mary's church with four public and two

AT NO TIME in the history of America has there been a more definitely hopeful outlook than is marked by this glorious holiday season.

We are entering a period of better regulated living, more industrious production and sounder merchandise values than any of us have seen since the world-disrupang conflict in Europe began.

Blessed by most plentiful crops, enriched by greater wisdom and heartened by the fact that normal times are here once again, we cannot help but feel that a Guiding Hand has brought us to this better day, and look upon it as the happiest of Christmastides, with the new year of our greatest hope about to dawn.

To you, the reader of these lines, The Plaut-Cadden Company most heartily conveys the sincerest of Christmas Good Wishes and its earnest hope that in the good times near at hand you will derive an overflowing measure of prosperity.

THE PLAUT- CADDEN CO

The Christmas music was carried out under the direction of the organist, Henry LaFontaine. At the 10.30 o'clock mass the senlors choir officiated, singing Hamfor the first time. Christmas books were given to the members of the Sunday school and boxes of candy to the children. For perfect attendance during the year prizes were given to Miss Exabeth libetson and Miss Mary Protell. At midnight Saturday there was a special service after which the members of the corning. Mrs. Thomas O'Rourke and Mr.

The program was as tollows: Opening song, school; scripture reading, Asst. Supi. Jonathan Johnson; prayer, Rev. S. the following the following the song school; scripture reading, Asst. Supi. Jonathan Johnson; prayer, Rev. S. the following the song school; scripture reading, Asst. Supi. Jonathan Johnson; prayer, Rev. S. the following the song school; scripture reading, Asst. Supi. Jonathan Johnson; prayer, Rev. S. The program was as tollows: Opening song, school; scripture reading, Asst. Supi. Jonathan Johnson; prayer, Rev. S. The program was as tollows: Opening song, school; scripture reading, Asst. Supi. Jonathan Johnson; prayer, Rev. S. The program was as tollows: Opening song, school; scripture reading, Asst. Supi. Jonathan Johnson; prayer, Rev. S. The program was as tollows: Opening song, school; scripture reading, Asst. Supi. Jonathan Johnson; prayer, Rev. S. The program was as tollows: Opening song, school; scripture reading, Asst. Supi. Jonathan Johnson; prayer, Rev. S. The program was as tollows: Opening song, school; scripture reading, Asst. Supi. Jonathan Johnson; prayer, Rev. S. The program was as tollows: Opening song, school; scripture reading, Asst. Supi. Jonathan Johnson; prayer, Rev. S. The program was as tollows: Opening song, school; scripture reading, Asst. Supi. Jonathan Johnson; prayer, Rev. S. The program was as tollows: Opening song, school; scripture reading, Asst. Supi. Jonathan Johnson; prayer, Rev. S. The program was as tollows: Opening song, school; scripture reading, Asst. Supi. Jonathan Johnson; prayer, Rev. S. The program was as tollows: Opening song, school; scripture reading, Asst. Supi. Jonathan Johnson; prayer, Rev. S. The program was as to

At 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon a very attractive Christmas program was carried out by members of the Sunday school at ne senior choir officiated, singing Ham-herel's Mass of the Blessed Sacrament. Park Congregational church. The school who took for his topic The Sacred Day. The services of the day were concluded met in the chapel and marched in a body. with the singing of Laudate Dominum by to the church, where they occupied pews the entire congregation. The soloists of the day were as follows: Miss Sadie Dris
The program was as follows: Opening Mrs. Henry F. Palmer, for many years a

The 9 o'clock high mass music was given by the junior choir of 35 voices. on the Christmas Tree? members of Miss members of the church and parish.

At the United Congregational church there was special Christmas music and a prominent member of the church. At the service Eimer Jerome Burdick and Catherine Mitchell, presented by their parents, were haptized.

In the afternoon theer was a Christmas vesper, It Shall Be to All Peoples, given Peace; Chains shall He break, for the slave is hymns of joy in grateful cherus raise we; all within us praise His holy Christ is the Lord! O then ever praise -Adolph Adams. THE CHRISTMAS GLEST.

Whose shall core my way that night, By moor or hill or shore. For him the blessed candles light, For him the open door. (Oh. Mary, this for thy Son's sake Though mine comes in no more!)

POETRY

O holy night! the stars are brightly the night of our dear Savier's birth!

Fall on your knees! O hear the angel O night divine! O night when Christ

Led by the light of Faith serenely beaming. With glowing hearts by His cradle we stand;
So led by light of a star sweetly gleam-

Here came the wise men from the Orient land. The King of Kings lay thus in lowly

Behold your King! before Him lowly manger, In all our trials born to be friend;

Truly He taught us to love one His law is Love, and His

My is swept my Tule logs burn,
a. ard is decked and spread,
For any who came come in turn
Are warmth and wine and bread,
(Oh. Mary, gra... my son this night
Be housed and comforted!)

Bid banned or beggared come for guest,
My heart shall share his woes.
And on his head my hand shall rest
To bless him ere be goes.
(Oh. Mary, grant my son this night

This night for thy one Son's dear sake
Wait light and warmth and wine,
Oh. Mary, we be mothers both!
Take these my team for sign.
And this I do for thy sweet Son.
Wilt thou not do for mine?
—Theodosia Garrison, in Broadway Magazine.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

She-Just think of it. A few words mumbled by the minister and people are married. are married.

He—Yes, and, by George, a few words mumbled by a sleeping husband and people are divorced.—Boston

Orator-Do you get me, poys, do you get me?
Voice from Rear—No! But wait until youse leave d' platform—Wayside

"My elder son is anxious to get "I see: he has hire aspirations."

"And my other boy is crazy to ac-"Ah! Lore aspirations, so to speak." -Boston Transcript. "Well, there's one thing about the man who sings his own praises.
"And how's that?"

"He never has to give the excuse that he has left his music home and can't play without his notes."—Flori-da Times-Union. Bobby was intensely interested in his new baby sister and he happened to be around one day when the nurse was singing her to sleep. "Nurse," he sad softly, "she's near-ly unconscious isn't she"."

"Yes," nodded the nurse and con-tinued her lullaby.
"Then don't

"Then don't sing any more," whis-pered Bobby, "or you'll kill her.'-Boston Transcript.

KALEIDOSCOPE

have been ordered to remove paper and trash from the streets of their espective beats. With a view of reducing her weight a young woman of Uniontown, Pa, hiked up a three-mile mountain road every morning and gained thirty pounds. Prices from 30 per cent. to 50 per cent. lower than those asked by Am-ericans are quoted by German busi-ness men for machines and tools for the Japanese market.

The police of Washington, D. C.

The building of houses for the la-boring classes of Spain is to be assisted by the government of that country. There is to be a considerable bond

Charles Snow, a diver went down on Marblehead's harbor bottom to examine some underwater moorings. When he came up he had a bottle of Martini cocktails under his arm.

An aged man, who has tried dif-event devices to overcome his deafness says he has found that a small megaphone with the mouthpiece placed to the ear makes the best ear trumclose-up conversation The minister of war in France has ordered the demobilization from the class of 1919, now with the colors of all soldiers who previously have served in foreign operations, those who had a father or two brothers killed in the war, and all those having a brother in the army. In view of the continued demand from universities and technical schools in Canada the Canadian air board has decided to place a number of aero en-gines at the disposal of the association air research committee for distribu-tion on an indefinte loan plan. These engnes which are mostly of the Flat and Bleriot types, were used on const-

Norwich Che Boston fore Norwich Che Boston fore Soconn

To All of Our Old Friends To Our Many New Friends

We Extend Christmas Greetings. May all the joy and the pleasure of the Christmas season be followed by a prosperous year.

The Reid & Hughes Co.

THE BOSTON STORE